

World Heritage & Sustainable Development

Date : January 29, 2008

The GREEN LINES Institute for Sustainable Development is proud to announce the official support of the Portuguese Ministry of the Culture to Heritage 2008: an International Conference on World Heritage & Sustainable Development.

Invited Key-Note Speakers:

Professor Frank Matero, Univ. of Pennsylvania, USA;

Professor Tomislav Sola, Univ. of Zagreb, Croatia;

Professor Gregory Ashworth, Univ. of Groningen, The Netherlands.

To make this event a great success, the Organizing Committee would like to invite all researchers and academics interested in this field of knowledge, to present a paper at this International Conference in Portugal from 7 to 9 May.

Relevant information on this event is available at the conference's website:

or, if you need any additional information contact the conference secretariat by e.mail:

DEADLINE FOR PAPERS' SUBMISSION 15 FEBRUARY 2008