

UCL Material Culture Seminar Series, Autumn 2008

Date : October 4, 2008

Venue: Department of Anthropology, Daryll Forde Lab, University College London

Time: Mondays 4.30-6.00pm.

Programme:

6th October

Prof. Nelson Graburn (University of California, Berkley)

Title: Anthropological Experiments and Inuit Ethnoaesthetics: A Performance Model of Artistic Agency

13th October

Prof. Johannes Fabian (Amsterdam School for Social Research)

Title: Collecting Thoughts -- About Collecting

20th October

Tim Edensor (Manchester Metropolitan University)

Title: 'Building stone materialities in Manchester, geographical connections, decay and repair'.

27th October

Peg Rawe (Bartlett School of Architecture/UCL).

Title: 'Spatiotemporality and the imagination'

10th November

Maren Kurz (UCL/Anthropology)

Title: Virtual, Eco-friendly or Domestic: Questioning the Transformation of Death in 21st Century Britain.

17th November

Ludovic Coupaye (UEA, CREDO/Marseille)

Titre: The Long and the Short of It: Yams, Art, and Technology amongst the Abelam.

24th November

Josh Reno (Goldsmith)

Title: Given-Whilst-Kept: Narcotics Surveillance, Waste, and Emergent Property Claims

Material World

A Global Hub for Thinking About Things

<http://www.materialworldblog.com>

---

For more information please see: <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/anthropology/seminars/index.htm#3>