

Research Associate - Bard Graduate Center

Date : February 5, 2009

The Bard Graduate Center invites applications for a non-stipendiary Research Associate position. The BGC is a graduate research institute committed to studying the cultural history of the material world, drawing on methodologies and approaches from art and design history, economic and cultural history, history of technology, philosophy, anthropology, and archaeology. We especially welcome applications from scholars working on projects parallel to our own. The fellow will be given an office and access to subsidized accommodation and will be expected to participate in the intellectual life of the institution. For additional information about the BGC, see www.bgc.bard.edu.

We will appoint either a single Research Associate for a year, or two semester-long Associates. Applications should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, sample publication (SASE), and a list of three referees, and should be sent by 15 March to Chair, Fellowship Search Committee, Bard Graduate Center for Studies in the Decorative Arts, Design and Culture, 18 W. 86th Street, New York, NY 10024. No electronic applications may be made.
