

Ghosts, Giants and fairies: Classic Faked Photographs a slide show

Date : August 29, 2012

Does the camera ever lie? A new exhibition shows that photography has been doing exactly that since its inception. From fairies at the bottom of the garden to ghostly visitors, here is a slide show of the best manipulated images (from the BBC Website).

- Faking It: Manipulated Photography Before Photoshop is at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York from 11 October
