

Masculinizing the Feminine (or how to use pinterest for visual analysis)

Date : March 2, 2013

Masculinizing the Feminine: is a pinterest page maintained by Sociological Images.

Each image links to products marketed specifically for men, that explicitly move away from the feminine (I like Blo-job, bronzing powder for men). Many of the images are linked to discussion and detail on the blog...thanks for this resource! Best way to use pinterest...
