

New Materials, New Technologies

Date : October 31, 2008

Seminar on INNOVATION, FUTURE AND SOCIETY featuring:

Wiebe Bijker, Bernadette Bensaude-Vincente, Nicky Gregson, Nigel Thrift, Chris Lefteri and Liliane Ljin.

The seminar is part of the ESRC New Materials and New Technologies Seminar Series and will be held at UCL in the Institute of Archaeology Lecture Theatre on Monday 3rd November 2008, 1-7pm.

The discussion will focus on the ethics, governance, practice and consumption of innovation in materials technology and its applications. Speakers will discuss the social and cultural impact of these technologies, from perspectives as varied as nano-science, social science, product design and art.

The Seminar will be held in the Archaeology Lecture Theatre, access is through the Anthropology Building, 14 Taviton Street, London, WC1H 0BW.

Please see programme on our website and flyer:

<http://www.ucl.ac.uk/anthropology/conferences/newmaterialsnewtechnologies> for more information on the event and the speakers at this seminar.

To register your interest in attending this seminar please email Maria Pritchard at mltpritchard@googlemail.com.