

The Wittelsbach-Graf diamond comes to NYC

Date : October 28, 2010

For those who missed it in Washington DC this past year, starting today you have a chance to see the diamond at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. For my earlier post on the diamond, click here.

Here's an additional article from the Washington Post, and here's the Wikipedia page on the stone.
